Question #1. DIY

Can I accomplish Tax Resolution results I desire on my own? Although time consuming and somewhat difficult; tax resolution can be accomplished by a taxpayer. Results may vary, it is important to let our prospects and clients know - they can attempt to resolve their tax issues alone.

Question #2. Verification

Did I verify the validity of a tax professional through an official IRS website?

Don't rely on TV, radio, and online advertisements solely. Many of these companies you hear on the radio, TV and online are marketing fronts. Choose a tax professional after verifying their ID with the IRS.

Question #3. Tax Resolution Process

Was the Tax Resolution Process Explained? Taxpayers should know the tax resolution process and average timelines for resolving tax liabilities. For example, what legally binding information is required from the client / taxpayer to start the process? What steps will the tax professional be taking with the IRS?

Question #4. Shopping

Did I Shop Around? Did you shop prices? Many taxpayers see and hear TV, online, and radio advertisements about tax help not knowing many of these advertisements are NOT direct tax professional to client. They are marketing companies that hide behind all types of names. Some use legal and authoritative language to appear official.

Question #5. Managing Expectations

Did the Tax Resolution Professional, Company, or Firm provide trustworthy expectations? This topic is brought up because taxpayers have been referred and contracted to us from outside marketing companies in the past whereas the clients were ill informed. Anyone can tell you what you want to hear especially before a transaction. It's important for taxpayers with IRS problems to understand that until a fact finding is conducted by a tax professional (Enrolled Agent, CPA, Tax Attorney) no unreal promises should be made.

Here is a common sales Falsehood VS Reality.

- Falsehood: Your tax debt will be wiped out – fresh start!
- Reality: Your tax debt will or may be expiring soon, you may or may not be eligible for a tax related hardship option. None of which can be determined by a tax resolution company until a licensed tax professional receives pertinent case information and a signed power of attorney.

Life Before an Enrolled Agent

Before becoming a licensed Enrolled Agent, I had the opportunity to interact with many patrons and cultures as a bar tender aboard Carnival cruise lines. I have worked several jobs to include juice bars, waited tables as a young mother of 2, as well as a bookkeeper for a local Ice cream chain.

Eventually finding my calling as a Tax Preparer for H & R Block, after 2 years I passed all the required courses and tests to become an Enrolled Agent.

I take pride in helping taxpayers navigate the IRS to find resolve with tax related problems.
